

FRUITS SPANISH PUPPETRY SCRIPT
Frutas

Myla Tiene Hambre (Myla Is Hungry)

- Keywords: tengo hambre (I'm hungry), uno (one), dos (two), tres (three), cuatro (four), cinco (five), seis (six), siete (seven), ocho (eight), nueve (nine), diez (ten)
- Prepare:
  - Be sure that you can easily access Myla in your bag. Check before class to make sure the puppet is clean and review what you'll be teaching.
- Perform:
  - Make a sound like a bird.
  - Ask the class, “Did you hear something? I think I heard Myla! Can we call her out?”.
  - Instruct the class to repeat Myla Birdie with a fun rhythm as you prepare your hand in the puppet inside of the Bilingual Birdies bag.
  - Myla enters with an exciting melody or gesture.
  - Instruct the children to repeat “¡Hola Myla!”.
  - Looking at Myla say, “¿Myla, Cómo estás?”.
  - Myla responds, “¡Tengo hambre!”.
  - Explain to the children that Myla is hungry. Invite the children to repeat tengo hambre with Myla three times.
  - Explain that the class is going to get some apples for Myla to eat. Look up and pretend to see an apple tree.
  - Instruct the children to reach their hands up and repeat after you as you pick ten apples for Myla to eat.
  - Count to ten in Spanish saying each number twice and encouraging the children to count with you. “Uno, dos, tres, cuatro, cinco, seis, siete, ocho, nueve, diez”.
  - Invite children to hold out their hand and pretend to feed Myla.
  - Go up to each child and have Myla eat apples out of their hands.
  - Explain that Myla is so full from all of the yummy apples she ate and she is going to take a nap now.
  - Encourage the children to repeat, “¡Hasta luego Myla!”.
  - Myla exits with the same melody or gesture.
- Challenge:
  - Once the children are confident counting to ten, have them count to twenty.
